Friends Come Together in an Ice Cold Reunion - The Ice Dancer

Former dance partners and close friends, Greta and Gabriel, find their true selves and rekindle their relationship in the winter wilderness of a Canadian province in author Konnie Ellis's novel, The Ice Dancer.

Greta's journey to the north begins as she struggles with the reality of her unfulfilled dreams. Along the way, she meets Dr. Willie Winkle, a psychologist who is harboring his own agenda.

Meanwhile, Gabriel has become an internationally successful ballet dancer who falls in love with the northern wilderness. He encounters several eclectic locals on the way, including Dave, a car mechanic and budding astronomer who uses ski poles to conduct astronomy experiments, and Buckshot Johnson, the leader of an opera-loving dogsled team.

Though unaware of their future together, Greta and Gabriel are on a powerful journey to reunite over the ice and snow of this magical winter wonderland.

Konnie Ellis grew up in Duluth, Minnesota, and currently resides in Colorado with her husband, composer and pianist Robert Ellis. Ms. Ellis is an artist, poet, and writer of short stories. The Ice Dancer is her first novel.
